

Please deny the use of electric power transmission line to broadcast broadband cable transmissions. The reason to do so is to not add another source of interference [jamming] to the already crowded shortwave radio spectrum. The proposed broadband service is not necessary to the computer using public, which has a myriad of already existing services from which to choose.